

Memo

From: Conservation & Board of Health

Effective Date: 4/7/95

Re: Percs. & Deep Holes Testing Policy

Wetlands must be flagged prior to testing a lot for a septic system. Contractors, engineers, septic installers and backhoe operators must avoid disturbing these areas during site evaluations.

If wetlands can not be avoided during the testing, lot plans showing the wetlands and the area to be crossed, must be submitted and reviewed by the Conservation Administrator one week prior to the testing date.